

Vermont Recreation and Parks Association

Unsung Hero of the Year Award

This award recognizes laypersons or professionals who have demonstrated consistent or outstanding service in their community and whose commitment has been in furthering the field of parks, recreation, and/or cultural and community services through excellence, service, and execution of their talents and skills. Nominees do not need to be a member of VRPA; however, the nominator must be a current VRPA member.

The information to be included with the Award Nomination Form is listed below. The nominator may wish to provide this written information on a separate piece of paper or as an attached resume from the nominee. Your submission will be evaluated on the basis of the information provided; please be thorough.

Selection Criteria:

- Contributed a needed service to the community or field of parks, recreation, and/or cultural service.
- Involvement was active.
- Initiated a new program(s) or activities and used innovative methods to solve problems.
- Amount of time devoted to the activity or service was significant.
- Activity or service produced positive changes and provided examples for other groups.
- Please include photographs, newspaper articles, letter of support or any other material that you feel are relevant in considering your nomination.

Submission procedures:

Complete the two attached nomination forms. Please submit nominee forms to:
Scott Hausler, Awards Chair, at shausler@hartford-vt.org.

Notification:

The member submitting this nomination will be notified if their nominee has been selected to receive this award approximately two weeks before the VRPA Annual Meeting. The successful nominator shall be responsible for making arrangements for their nominee to be present in person to receive the award at the VRPA Annual Meeting on May 11th, 2022 in Burlington, VT. Every effort should be made to keep this selection confidential so that it can be announced at the meeting. The member nominating the recipient may also be responsible for assisting the awards committee in gathering any additional information which may be needed for the presentation of the award.
